

ABSTRACT OF THE DISCLOSURE

Radiolabeled conjugates are disclosed which have a component that is effective to target tumor cells, which cells selectively take up and degrade the conjugate, thereby delivering to the tumor cell nucleus a radioisotope capable of being incorporated into the nuclear material, so as to produce a cytotoxic effect and/or to render the cell detectable by radioimaging.